Innovative Circuit Technology Introduces Blair Clements as Director of Sales

Blair Clements has joined Innovative Circuit Technology Ltd. (ICT) as Director of Sales. Blair brings a strong background in the power electronics industry, and was most recently with Xantrex Technology as Regional Sales Manager for the Midwest and Northeastern United States, and Canada.

Blair has an Advanced Certificate in Electronics Engineering from the South Metropolitan College of TAFE in Fremantle, Australia.

Blair will be working closely with our channel partners to identify and help close opportunities in the land mobile radio market, broadband and site infrastructure accounts, and large mobile power conversion opportunities in fleet, oil and gas, and utility markets.

Please feel free to contact Blair for any sales assistance on opportunities involving ICT products and solutions.
